

Law office “INLAT PLUS international” is one of the leading companies in Latvia with many years of experience that is oriented to complex approach while dealing with legal tasks of legal and private persons. The main principles of our job: individual approach, effectiveness and professionalism.

“INLAT PLUS international” is known for its high level of responsibility, which is based on a constant improvement of theoretical knowledge and practical skills. “INLAT PLUS international” activities differ from the others by developing individual approach when dealing with each client, meeting deadlines every time, great service, as well as highly profitable balance between price and quality. Our main goal is to provide professional legal services.

“INLAT PLUS international” grants a wide spectrum of services in order to fully realize legal support for legal and private persons in different areas of law. Since its foundation, our office also provides support for foreign clients, inter alia, in doing business in Latvia.

Law office “INLAT PLUS international” will professionally defend you and your interests, as well as provide professional legal services, which come from rich, long-standing experience in the field of law.

Our services:

- Legal support for commercial organizations in managing business activities in Latvia, including foreign partners from the EU, Russia and the CIS;
- Outsourcing of legal services;
- Registration and legal support in organization and managing foreign branch offices;
- Legal support in terms of taxes in order to use the advantages of Latvian legislation and to minimize the cost of maintaining the company;
- Legal analysis for current and future business projects;
- Full and continuous bookkeeping of legal and private person’s business;
- Legal preparation and analysis of commercial and management contracts;
- Concluding contracts of management and rent for commercial activity needs, as well as solving possible disputes;
- Preparation of all necessary documents for all possible changes within the company (increase, decrease fixed capital, legal address, changes within the board, council, number of members etc.), as well as reorganization and liquidation of the companies;
- Preparation of all necessary documents and representing the client in the Office of Citizenship and Migration Affairs to get a residence permit, visa, citizenship, inter alia, to get a job for foreign workers (we have a lot of experience, and can deal with non-typical situation);
- Administrative law (representing interests and protecting the rights of the clients in governmental institutions);
- Representing interests of the client in relationships with private persons, governmental and municipal institution, as well as in the court of Latvian Republic and arbitration;

- Recovering debts from private and legal persons;
- Resolving the disputes connected to labor law;
- Legal providing of the process of insolvency for private and legal persons;
- Legal support and preparation in legal estate transactions;
- Resolving disputes between co-owners of real estate, preparation of a contract to ensure separate ownership;
- Providing the procedure of notarization;
- Legal expertise, legal analysis of the documents and their legitimacy, providing the procedure of legalization and apostille.

Our employees speak English, Latvian and Russian perfectly, and can prepare of necessary legal document in aforementioned languages no matter, how difficult the document should be. We provide legal support for each client in whichever language that is convenient.

Our specialists provide professional legal support in most convenient way for a client (by phone, by email or in a private meeting)

Specialists of our office always keep in touch with our clients and inform them about the process.